Communication Processes

At Duncraig Primary School, we understand that the relationship between the home and the school plays a very important part in a child's education. In partnership with the school, parents play a critical role in their child's educational experience, both academically and socially. Parents contribute much to their child's development and are among the most important influences on how a child approaches their learning.

Teachers are responsible for the more formal aspects of children's learning, and successful teaching builds on the home experiences of the child. This is most effective when there is an active partnership with parents. Two-way communication is a critical factor in the partnership between parents and the school. Where a partnership exists, it is easier for parents to feel confident about the teaching and learning taking place in the classroom. It is also easier to address any potential concerns and find suitable solutions to problems that may occur throughout a child's educational journey.

School Communication Strategies

The following list explains the ways that we communicate with parents at Duncraig Primary School. We encourage all parents to access these strategies regularly to ensure you remain informed about your child's educational journey. Parents should be aware that any other forms of communication may not be sanctioned by the school and could contain inaccurate information. Please contact your child's teacher or the school administration if you have any queries. Where possible, your query will be responded to within 24 hours.

School Level Communication

- School Website www.duncraigps.wa.edu.au
Our website is kept up to date, including information on term calendars, newsletters, school plans, policies and reports.
- Fortnightly Newsletter
Available on our school website every second Monday.
- School App 'tiqbiz'
Tiqbiz is used for instant notifications to your phone, tablet or computer. Instructions on how to access tiqbiz are available on our school website.
- Email
Email is used to communicate important information to parents. It may also be used to correspond with individual or small groups of parents.
- Permission/ Reminder Notes
These paper notes are sent home with children to seek permission to attend school based excursions, incursions and remind families of key events. Please be aware that paper reminders are not used regularly. Where possible, the newsletter, tiqbiz and/or email are used.
- SMS
The school uses text messaging to notify parents if their child is not at school. It may also be used to contact parents in an emergency.

- School Information Booklet
This booklet outlines key information about Duncraig Primary including school hours and uniform information. It is provided to all new families and is available in the school office.
- P&C Communications
The P&C has a Facebook page containing general information about P&C events. Additional information is communicated by the P&C via the school's newsletter, tiqbiz app, email or reminder notes.

Classroom Level Communication

- Formal Reports
Two formal, written reports about your child's academic and social progress are distributed each year, at the end of semesters one and two.
- Information Meetings
These class meetings are held early in term one each year. The purpose of the meetings is to provide parents with general information about class routines and procedures.
- Teacher Interviews
Interviews with your child's teacher/s are encouraged to discuss individual needs. Please ensure you make an appointment to avoid disrupting the learning program.
- School Assembly
Every year, each class hosts a whole school assembly. Teachers and students use this event to showcase their learning as a drama production, visual arts display or musical item.
- Open Night
Classrooms are opened during an evening in term three to showcase the children's work. Individual class features may include displayed classwork, workbook perusal and learning journey activities.
- Special Events
Individual classes may host an event to celebrate a special occasion that is linked to the learning program or interests of their students. For example, events may be held to acknowledge Harmony Day, Mother's Day or Father's Day.
- Class Strategies (varies from class to class)
Individual classes may choose a range of strategies to communicate with the families of their students. This may include class email groups, apps (other than tiqbiz) and class newsletters. Please note that only strategies that include the teacher, are sanctioned by the school.

Communication Processes

How can parents communicate with their child's teacher or the school?

The following list outlines a range of strategies that parents can use to contact the school. Included on our website is additional information from the Department of Education entitled 'Talking with my school', which outlines the processes for raising a concern or lodging a complaint.

- SMS Absence Notification – 0419 9224 048
The school should be notified if your child will be absent from school, using the school's SMS number. This number is also included on our website.
- Email
The general school email address is Duncraig.PS@education.wa.edu.au. Email contact details for individual school staff are listed on our website.
- Telephone – 9447 8255
The school office is open from 8.00am to 3.30pm for telephone inquiries.
- Meetings
Parents are welcome to contact a staff member directly or liaise through the school office to organise a suitable meeting time.
- School Survey
The school distributes an opinion survey to all parents and caregivers biannually. Please contact the school for information about when the next survey is due to be sent out.
- Parent Discussion Forums
Parent discussion forums are meetings with the principal and school leadership team that occur several times a year. These events are small gatherings of invited parents/carers and encourage informal feedback about our school's strengths and areas requiring improvement.
